University Shield Final 16 In the State

By Mr Howie

The University Shield Open's Boys Rugby League started in Term 1 with a nail biting win in the Prospect Zone Gala Day Final against Greystanes High School. The boys then competed at the Sydney West Finals Gala Day where they took on Mitchell High School. A superstar performance from a number of our players including our Captain Deon Iro, Vice Captain Lomano Manukeu and outstanding playmaking from Wiliame Tuivanuavou led to hard fought win during extra time. With the game going into golden point, Arthur Phillip High School spirit proved too much for the opposition with some huge performances in the front row from Maa Aukuso-Taelese, Devran Varlik, John Raukete and Phoenix Brown keeping APHS in the game with strong ball running and impenetrable defence. In extra-time Samuel Conteh made a break from the kick-off before Deon Iro finished off the game with the match winning try. This victory over Mitchell High School saw the boys progress through to the NSW CHS Final round of 16 teams, a huge accomplishment and commitment shown from all players in the 25 man squad.

At APHS we Strive

In the final 16 the boys faced Belmore Boys HS who were the better team on the day. The score did not reflect the effort the boys put in, they showed resilience, commitment, responsibility and success throughout the whole competition. The boys should be congratulated for their effort and achievements so far. It is an outstanding result from the Open's who have only ever progressed through to this point in the competition once before.

Well done to all the boys in the squad: Levi Rucelle, Adem Salkicka, Ayman Alahmad, Ngaro Boyce, Phoenix Brown, Ratu Cabealawa, Daniel Cama, Samuel Conteh, Chance Kohu, Lais Niazy, Wiliame Tuivanuavo, Manoa Tuivawa, Ali Ahmadshahi, Maa Aukuso-Taelase, Cihan Aydoner, Daniel Barzani, George El Koura, Lloyd Enriquez, Mohamed Ghamrawi, Deon Iro, Devran Varlik, John Williams, Elijah Beazley, David Kelly, Lomano Manukeu.
